Krzysztof Andrukiewicz

Remote Fullstack Developer

With more than a decade in the game, I've got the web development scene down, rocking ReactJS and Node.js since 2020.

I quickly pick up new skills, relying on determination, intellect, Google, and ChatGPT. I'm great at handling all the nitty-gritty details in UX/UI and staying in the loop with the latest industry trends.

I have knowledge in technical concepts, system architecture, programming methods, and more, which helps me complete projects quickly and offer strong solutions. I'm also comfortable working in international environments and have excellent English skills for effective business communication.

tldr; Key skills

- Very quick learner with strong english communication skills.
- Fantastic at spotting the smallest errors in code and UX/UI.
- Amazing at fixing bugs, pulling all-nighters for unexpected „}" in line 32, improving performance, and introducing new functionalities.
- Following trends for backend and frontend frameworks/libraries.
